Foreword

Gain a competitive edge through IoD Ireland Board Membership.

Boards face growing challenges in today's rapidly evolving business environment, driven by rising stakeholder expectations, accelerating technological change, and global geopolitical uncertainty. Responding effectively to these pressures requires different approaches, as no two boards are the same. Each has its own composition, remit, and governance priorities, which shape the type and level of support it needs. IoD Ireland Board Membership is built with this in mind: flexible by design and tailored to deliver value where it matters most.

IoD Ireland Board Membership gives your organisation a clear competitive edge by equipping your directors and governance professionals with cutting-edge insights, tailored support, access to an influential peer network, and expert guidance to navigate change and build stakeholder confidence.

It keeps your board and governance team connected, informed, and focused on upholding the highest standards, clearly demonstrating your organisation's commitment to strong governance and long-term success.

Join Ireland's leading community of directors.

Through Board Membership, position your organisation at the forefront of governance and help shape the future of responsible business leadership.

Darren Clarke

Business Development Manager
Institute of Directors

“Effective boards depend on clarity, robust governance, and informed oversight. Board Membership with IoD Ireland provides a powerful platform for directors, Chairs, and governance leaders to share insights, build expertise, and uphold these critical standards across organisations of every size and sector.”

Richard Pike, Chairman and Non Executive Director,
Financial Services Boards

Empower your Board with Board Membership

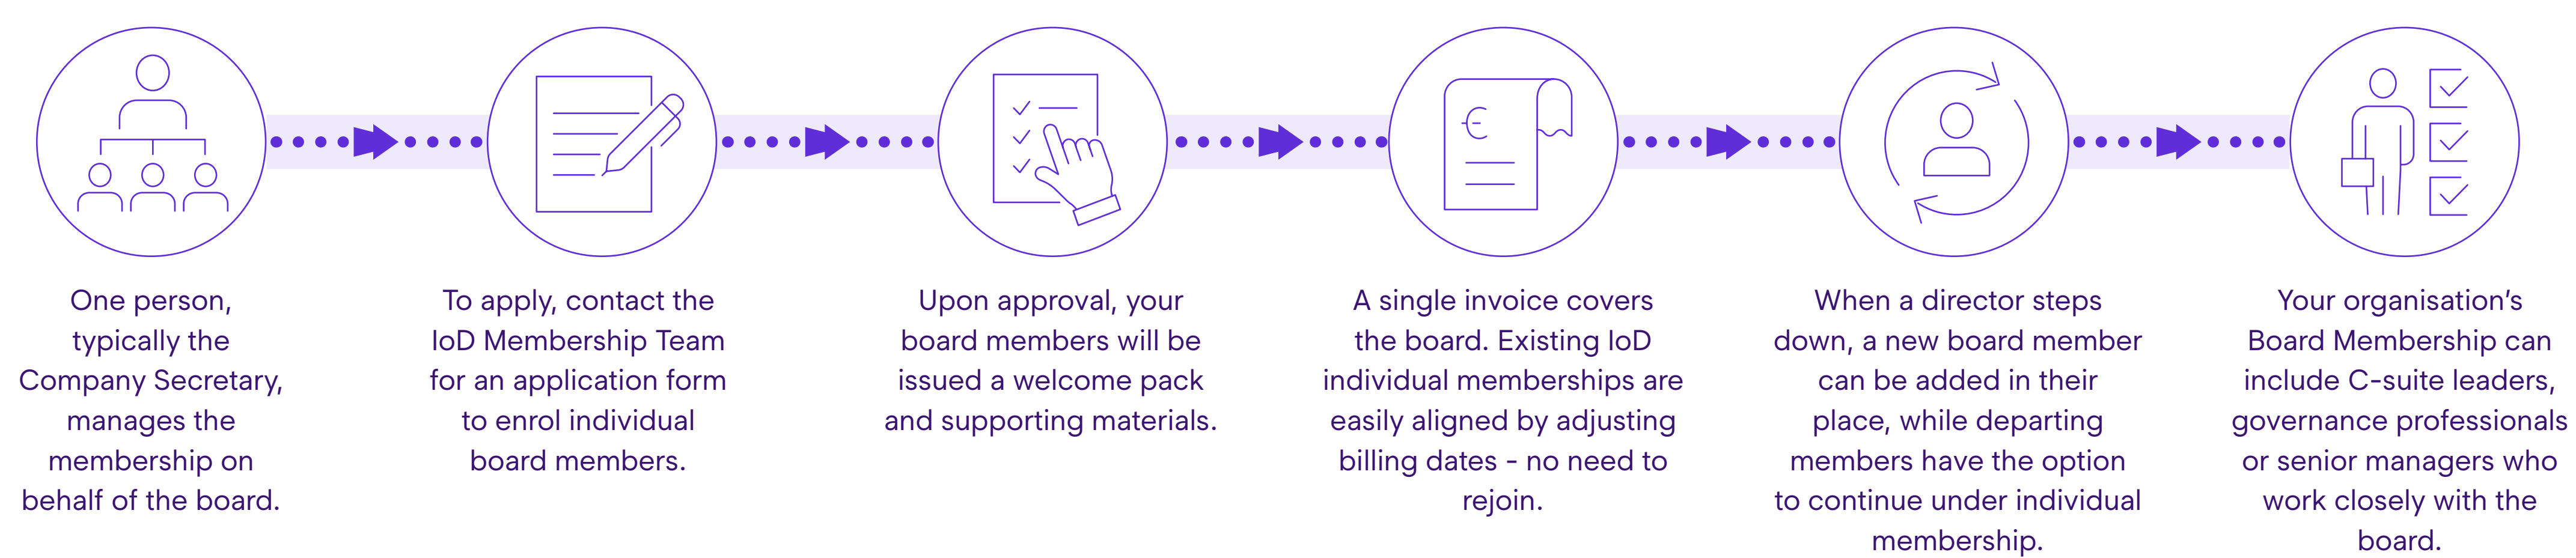

Helping Your Board Thrive.

IoD Ireland's membership is a vibrant and influential network of over 3,500 directors and senior executives, drawn from a diverse range of organisations across Ireland. It includes leaders from companies of all sizes, from agile SMEs to major multinationals, as well as prominent figures from the public sector and not-for-profit organisations. This breadth of membership underscores IoD Ireland's impact and reach across the entire Irish business landscape.

How Board Membership Works

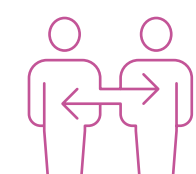

We understand that no two boards are the same. The structure, size, and strategic priorities of each organisation influence both the level of engagement and the nature of support required. That's why our Board Membership is highly flexible and designed to deliver meaningful value based on your board's specific needs. As such, fees are determined on a case-by-case basis, ensuring a tailored approach that aligns with your objectives.
